WELCOME

CCCOG welcome those who are visiting with us for the first time.

"Marvel not that I say unto thee, ye must be born again". St. John 3:7

If today is your birthday, it is without doubt a very special day in your life. Friends will probably call, visit, and/or send gifts. Your relatives may do likewise or more. I am sure the feeling of excitement and anticipation which surrounds today, is one you would wish was here to stay.

If you are born again however, the feeling of freedom and the feeling of being special will always be with you. Each passing day gives you the feeling of being a new person, and rightfully so, for as Paul said in 2Corinthians 5:17, "If any man be in Christ he is a new creature, old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new".

As Christians we might not have received gifts from our friends or have been given a party for being born again, as a matter of fact, we might even lose a friend or two, as a result of accepting Christ. One thing is guaranteed however, and that is the gift of eternal life to those who are faithful to the end.

While the annual celebration of our physical birth can be exciting, it is far more exciting to celebrate, on a daily basis the spiritual birth we experience when we accept Jesus Christ as Savior, and
